Today at the Paicines Ranch

Our primary focus is to build soil health and sequester carbon. We are doing this through regenerative agricultural practices, like our raised-trellis system vineyard.

Holistically Managed Sheep

Rotational grazing in the rangeland and the farm ground.

Weddings at the Paicines Ranch

We average between 15 and 20 weddings per year and we are trying to encourage eco-friendly weddings.

Eco Weddings

The average wedding can generate 400-600 pounds of trash and 66 tons of carbon emissions – this is the equivalent of what 4-5 people would generate in a year!

Workshops & Retreats

We host our own events (Learning Journey, Women in Ranching, Lead with Land) and we also let others use our space for their own gatherings.

Paicines Ranch offers a variety of lodging facilities. All of our indoor facilities are non-smoking and all include access to open spaces. There is WIFI with high-speed Internet access in almost all lodging and across the grounds.

One of our goals is to reduce our environmental foot print whenever possible, so throughout the venue you will find cottages and open spaces uniquely decorated with an eclectic mix of antiques, vintage upcycled fixtures, and repurposed farm accents.

If you love nature nature, this is the place for you! The ranch is a fantastic, peaceful place with tons of birds, sheep, a vineyard and several good walking trails/roads. We saw two great horned owls! The night skies were awesome, with lots of stars. The garden cottage was nice and had plentiful hot water for showers. We went in the winter so had to make use of the two space heaters to heat the common and bedroom areas. It must get pretty hot in the summer. We spent two days hiking at
